Dear Colleagues,

We are happy to inform you that the Open Education Center, University of Religions and Denominations (Qom, Iran) will hold the first International intensive course of Contemporary Iranian Studies on August 15-25, 2019. The program provides an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary platform for the study of modern Iranian culture, politics, and society. It seeks to deliver an academically and professionally enriching experience and offer a unique academic program for those who wish an intimate, insider's look at modern Iran.

The Iranian Studies Intensive Course is a well-balanced mixture of 1) academic lectures by outstanding professors, 2) handpicked social programs, and 3) cultural tours guided by experts of the field. The main purpose is to allow those interested from abroad to explore Iran, to be directly in touch with their subject of interest, to learn about Iran from a multidisciplinary academic approach and to gain a first-hand experience of living in Iran.

It would be highly appreciated if you distribute this info to those who might be interested. We sincerely hope that you, your staff, students and colleagues in your institution will join us in making this program a success. Should you need further information, please kindly contact us at iranianstudies@urd.ac.ir
